8-HOUR LAW WOULD AVERT RAIL STRIKE

CONGRESS MAY PASS BILL TODAY OR SATURDAY

GARRETSON ASSERTS MEASURE WOULD PREVENT A WALKOUT

House Will Take Up Adamson Bill This Morning—Leaders Agree on Rule for Vote By 4:30 o'Clock This Afternoon—Senate to Take Up Similiar Measure—Wilson Arranges to Spend This Morning in Capital to Aid in Putting Legislation Thru.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Belief grew in all quarters here tonight that the great railroad strike called for next Monday morning would be averted. At the close of a day of conferences and hearings, congress apparently was prepared to pass tomorrow or Saturday the eight hour day legislation which heads of the employes brotherhoods have declared officially will cause them to telegraph the code message necesesary to revoke the strike order.

Altho President Wilson still desires strongly to see his whole legislative program accepted, and Democratic leaders in the senate have ideas of their own about what should be done, administration spokesmen virtually conceded tonight that the bill finally passed would provide only for:

An eight hour day for trainmen in interstate commerce, effective Dec. 1st, on January 1st, with the present ten hour rate of pay and pro rata overtime and;

A small commission appointed by the president to investigate the working of the law for six to nine months and report to congress.

This with the date Dec. 1st, is in substance the Adamson bill, revised by Representative Adamson and Democratic Leader Kitchin after conferring with President Wilson and which A. B. Garretson, spokesman for the Brotherhoods, stated formally late today would be considered a "satisfactorw settlement" and prevent the walkout.

Senate to Take up Similar Bill

Tonight the senate interstate commerce committee agreed to report out a similar bill, with the date Jan. 1st., and roads under 100 miles in length, and electric, street railway and interurban lines exempted.

The house will meet at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning to take up the Adamson measure and the majority leaders have agreed upon a special rule providing for a vote by 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The senate mets at 10 o'clock to begin consideration of its committee's bill with the administration leaders determined to keep the body in continuous session until it is passed.

Only long speeches in the senate can prevent prompt action, and the administration is confident that minority senators will not carry their opposition so far as to make it impossible to get the necessary legislation thru both houses by midnight Saturday.

President Wlison will be in his room at the capitol when the senate meets and has arranged to s pend all of the forenoon there aiding in putting the legislation thru. At three o'clock in the afternoon he leaves for Shadow Lawn, his summer home in New Jersey, where on Saturday he is to be notified formally of his nomination for re-election. A special messenger will be started for Shadow Lawn with the eight hour bill as soon as it is passed and the president will sign it there.

Holds Frequent Conferences

While the senate committee today was holding a nine hour hearing at which representatives of the railroads, the employes and the shippers gave their views on the situation the president held frequent conferences with members of congress and sent for brotherhood leaders and earnestly urged them to rescind the strike order.

When the trainmen left the white house authorized the statement that they had given no assurances. It was indicated that the president still intended if it became necessary as a last resort to direct a public appeal to the men of the brotherhoods urging them upon patriotic grounds to have the strike called off.

Altho the program for action in the house was clearly outlined without delay, it was not until late tonight that a definite idea of what the senate would have before it tomorrow was obtainable. When its hearings closed, the interstate commerce committee went into what promised to be an all night session to consider the various legislative proposals before it, including the president's whole program with its provisions for preventing strikes pending investigation and for the drafting of men to operate trains in case of military necessity. All day the house leaders had been declaring that these provisions never could be enacted and near midnight it was learned that the senate committee had decided it would not be advisable to submit them at this time.

Agrees to Report Bill

The committe agreed to report a bill substantially similar to the Adamson measure, with the effective date of the eight hour provision January 1st, instead of December 1st and with roads under 100 miles long and electric street railway and interurban lines exempted.

Senator Brandege, a Republican committeeman, expressed the opinion that the bill could be passed by tomorrow night. The Connecticut senator left the meeting after the committee had sent out for a supply of cigars and fruit and had settled down to make a night of perfecting the measure agreed upon.

Formal announcement of the house program was made just before the house adourned by Representative Kitchin with a request that all members be in their seats tomorrow. He inroduced the rule providing for a vote on the Adamson bill by 4:30 P. M. Another will be brought into clear the way for immediate consideration of the measure unless the Republicans allow it to be taken without objection.

Speaker Clark remarked that enactment of the strike legislaion by Saturday night would mean final adjournment of Congress next Wednesday.

Representative Mann, the Republican leader is opposed to the Adamson bill and other Republicans indicated their determination to vote against it, but there has been no minority conference on the subject and no strong concerted opposition is looked for.

Confident Measure Will Pass

Postmaster General Burleson who participated in the conferences with President Wilson expressed confidence that the legislation would be put thru both houses.

The strike situation found its way into the senate debate on the emergency revenue bill once during the day. Senator Stone in a review of tne accomplishments of the present administration compared with the Taft administration referred to President Wilson's efforts to prevent a strike. Senator Gallinger the Republican leader interrupted to say that it was well known that the pesident was playing to the grandstand and that he has little regard for the constitution as he plays.

Reports tonight that brotherhood heads would be willing to notify their general chairmen that a satisfactory settlement had been reached if they received assurances from the administration that the eight hour bill would be enacted into law,, were denied by them. They declared they would not rescind the strike order until the bill had become a law.

The senate committee worked until long after midnight, and adjourned to meet again at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Altho early in the evening it had been definitely determined to present only one measure tomorrow—the Adamson bill in slightly amended form—some members still were urging the entire program originally proposed by the president and consideration was given to a proposal that the interstate commerce commission be empowered to fix wages for employes of interstate carriers.

The only important difference before the committee bill as it stands now and the Adamson measure is the fixing of January 1st, as the effective date of the eight hour provision and that exemption of railroads not over 100 miles long, electric street and interurban lines.

The proposed investigating commission would be called the eight hour day commission, "its members would be paid $25 a day while serving" and the appropriation for expenses would be $50,000 instead of $25,000 as proposed in the Adamson bill.

Text of the Adamson Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The text of the Adamson bill, which Brotherhood leaders said tonight could avert the nationwide strike if enacted by Saturday night is as follows:

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

Section 1:—That beginning Dec. 1st, 1916, eight hours in contracts for labor and service be deemed a day's work and the measure or standard of a day's work for the purpsoe of reckoning the compensation for service of all employes who are now or may hereafter be employed by any railroad which is subject to the provisions of the act of February 1st, 1887, "an act to regulate commerce," as amended, and who are now or may hereafter be actually engaged in any capacity in the opieration of trains used for transportation of persons or property on railroads from any state or territory of the United States or District of Columbia to any other state or territory of the United States or District of Columbia or from one place in a territory to another place in the same territory or from any place in the United States to an adjacent foreign country or from any place in the United States thru a foreign country to any other place in the United States.

Section 2:—That the president appoint a commission of three which shall observe the operation and effects of the institution of the 8-hour standard work day as above defined and the facts and conditions affecting the relations between such common carriers and employes during a period of not less than six months nor more than nine months, in the discretion of the commission and within thirty days thereafter such commission shall report its findings to the president and congress. That each member of the commission created under the provisions of this act shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the president. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary and hereby is appropriated out of any money in the United States treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be immediately available and to continue available until the close of the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1917, for the necessary and proper expenses incurred in connection with the work of such commission including salaries, per diem, traveling expenses of members and rent furniture, office fixtures and supplies, books salaries and other necessary expenses, the same to be approved by the chairman of said commission and audited by the proper accounting officers of the treasury.

Section 3:—That pending the report of the commission herein provided for and for a period of thirty days thereafter, the compensation of railway employes subject to this act for a standard 8-hour work day shall not be reduced below the present standard day's wage, and for all necessary time in excess of eight hours such employes shall be paid at a rate not less than the pro rata rate for such standard 8-hour work day.

Section 4:—That any person violating any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both.

T. R. DELIVERS FIRST SPEECH FOR HUGHES

PROGRESSIVES AND REPUBLICANS ESCORT COL. TO LEWISTON, ME.

Former Presient Receives Enthusiastic Demonstrations—Address is Devoted To An Attack On the Administration.

Lewiston, Me., Aug. 31.—Progressives united with Republicans in greeting Theodore Rosevelt who delivered here tonight his first speech of the campaign in behalf of Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency. A large delegation of Republicans and Progressives met him in Portland and escorted him here where he reviewed an old fashioned torchlight procession in which many former Progressive leaders marched.

From the time he landed in Boston today from the New York steamer until he retired to his rooms tonight the former president received enthusiastic demonstrations. His address was devoted largely to an attack on the administration and to a criticism of hyphens.

There should be in American citizenship no dual allegiance. he declared.

"Americanism," he said, "is a matter of the spirit of the soul, of the mind; not a birthplace or creed."

The cause of preparedness is insepererably called with the cause of Americanism or patriotism, "of whole hearted loyalty to this nation and to all for which the great men of this nation in the past have stood," the colonel declared.

It would be a "grave misfortune" he asserted to re-elect Mr. Wilson.

"At this moment," he said, "Mr. Wilson's buglemen advance as his greatest claim that 'he has kept us out of war.' This claim can be seriously made only by individuals who indorse President Wilson's belief that deeds are nothing and words everything.

"Under President McKinley we had a war with Spain. Under President Wilson we are asured that we have had 'peace' with Mexico. These are the words. Now for the deeds. During the war with Spain fewer Americans were killed by the Spaniards than have been killed by Mexicans during the present 'peace' with Mexico. Moreover, when the war with Spain was thru it was thru. But peace still continues to rage as furiously as ever in Mexico."

Colonel Roosevelt charged that the taking of Vera Cruz was war, and added:

"It was a war which was entered into pointlessly and abandoned ignobly; it was a war which failed, a war which did damage both to the Mexicans and ourselves and which in its outcome reflected infinite dishonor upon our nation. But it was war nevertheless.

"The kind of 'safety first' for which President Wilson's advocates stand," he continued, "means 'duty last, honor last, courage last.' I do not believe in it. I believe that it is obtained at the cost of moral degredation in the present and at the risk of national ruin in the future."

PROSECUTOR CALLS ON GOVERNOR TO SEND STATE TROOPS TO LIMA

Race Riots Threatened As Outgrowth of Failure of Mob to Lynch Negro.

Limo, O., Aug. 31.—Prosecutor O. Barr has called upon Governor Frank B. Willis to send state militia to Lima at once to help handle threatened race riots here tonight, as an outgrowth of the failure of a mob to lynch Charles Daniels, a negro accused of attacking Mrs. John Barber yesterday. Saloons were ordered closed at 6 o'clock, all negroes have been warned to stay off the streets and scores of them are leaving the city. Fifty men have been deputized and the entire country and city force of officers have been called for emergency duty.

It was understood that no action on the part of the prosecutor's request was taken as only the sheriff, mayor or county judge is authorized to formally request troops.

Sheriff Sherman Eley, who was tortured last night returned to Lima late today to learn that his little daughter had died from shock, caused last night when the mob forced the jail while looking for the negro. The negro tonight was in jail at Napoleon.

Colonel E. S. Bryant, assistant adjutant general of Ohio, came to Lima today and tonight informed state officials at Columbus that the situation was quiet.

Mrs. Cecil Kephart, sister of Sheriff Eley's wife, was said to be in a serious condition tonight after having been manhandled by the mob last night when it broke into the jail.

James R. Hembraugh of this county recently marketed in Chicago 98 head of cattle weighing 1310 pounds. They sold at $10 per hundred. Mr. Hembrough has long been occounted one of the most successful feeders in this county.

War News Summarized

Artillery is active on all the battle fronts of Europe but only on the Transylvania-Roumanian border has infantry been engaged to any extent. Bad weather hampers operations in France; the Austro-Germans and Russians on the eastern line are resting, and the Austrians and Italians have yet to renew their desperate fighting of a few weeks ago.

Along the whole line of the lower Carpathians the Roumanian armies are reported attacking the Austro-Hungarian forces. The defenders are said to have retired to their second fortified line.

Northeast of Kronstadt, the Austro-Hungarians have taken new positions west of Csik Szerda on the Atula river, after fighting with the Roumanians. This indicates that the troops of King Ferdinand have broken thru the mountains on the eastern border of Transylvania as well as on the south. Roumanian attacks east of the Iron Gate on the Danube were repulsed, Vienna says.

Russian troops are marching thru Dobrudja but whether to strike at Bulgaria north of Varna or to aid the Roumanians invading Transylvania, it is not known.

It is reported a Russian fleet has arrived at Constonza, principal Roumanian Black Sea port and the Bulgarians are said to fear a combined land and sea attck on Varn. Rustchuk, Bulgria, on the Danube, a report to Paris says, has been occupied by the Roumanians. In Volhynia the Russians have repulsed a German attack northeast of Kovel, with severe losses.

British forces in August lost approximately 4,711 officers and 123,234 men killed, wounded and missing.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS EMPLOYED BY RAILROADS TO ASK FOR RAISE

Preparing to Strike if Demands for an Eight Hour Day and Wage Increase of Five Cents an Hour are Not Met.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 31—Members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers employed by seventeen railroads in eight states are preparing to go on strike in the near future unless demands being drafted, asking an eight hour day and a wage increase of five cents an hour are met, according to J. P. Noonan, vice-president of the brotherhood, at headquarters here tonight.

Noonan said the action of the electrical workers was co-incident with similar action on the part of between 40,000 and 50,000 workmen, comprising six different crafts in Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma Texas, Arkansas, Colorado and Nebraska. Among the craftsmen he said would be mechanics, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, car workers and boiler workers employed by the seventeen railroads. Their demands will be those of the electrical workers.

Several conferences with railroad heads have been held without success, Noonan said. The railroads affected, Noonan said, are the Missouri Pacific; Texas & Pacific; Kansas City, Mexico & Orient; Missouri, Kansas & Texas; Denver & Rio Grande; Colorado & Southern; Colorado Midland; Denver & Salt Lake; Kansas City Terminal; St. Joseph & Grand Island; Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis; Fort Smith & Western; Missouri & Northern Arkansas and the Wabash.

DOYLE SIGNS CUB CONTRACT.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Larry Doyle, traded by the New York Giants to the Chicago Nationals in the deal for Heinie Zimmerman, signed a three year contract with the Chicago team tonight, after "holding out" several days. It is said Doyle will receive $7,500 a year from the Cubs.

Doyle will joint the Cubs at St. Louis tomorrow. He left Chicago tonight for St. Louis in company with Dick Kinsella, Yankee scout who first bought Doyle into the limelight with the old Springfield, Ill., Three Eye League club.

DUNNE OPENS CAMPAIGN

Chicago, Aug. 31—Governor Edward F. Dunne opened his campaign for re-nomination in Chicago today with an address to a crowd of Democratic workers representing every ward in the city. He made a plea for party harmony after the primaries and said he believed that President Wilson would carry Illinois in November. He said he was confident he would be re-nominated and for that reason would make but a few speeches in Chicago.

ORDER EXTRA SUPPLIES FOR NATIONAL GUARD

TAKE PRECAUTION AGAINST POSSIBILITY OF RAIL TIE-UP

Army Officials Indicate That If Troop Trains Are Caught In Tieup Men Would Detrain and Make Camp At Whatever Point They Are To Await Instructions.

Washington, Aug. 31.—National Guard regiments and regular coast artillery companies en route to or from the border have been ordered equipped with extra supplies for the journey against the possibility that a general railway strike will delay their movements.

Secretary Baker and other war department officials refused today to discuss reports that the 15,000 guardsmen suddenly ordered northward last night were being moved as a precaution against strike violence. It is known, however, that the states to which the troops are returning are those where only a small portion of the guard was not called into the federal service and in most of them large railway terminals are located.

Approximately 30,000 troops are under orders to move to or from the border and many of them will be en route Monday morning the time set for the strike. Army officials indicated today that if the troop trains were caught in a tieup the men would detrain and make camp at whatever point they are to await instructions. If congress does not authorize the drafting of train crews for military purposes soldiers might be used to run the trains. Every regimental commander has the names of the men under him who could drive an engine or do trainmen's service in an emergency arose.

As long as the regiments ordered north remain in the federal service they are not subject to the call of the governor's of their states, and their participation in strike duty would have to be on the same basis as regular federal troops.

Expect Delay In Movements.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 31.—National Guard regiments ordered to return from the border will complete their movements northeast and west hardly before the end of next week, and perhaps not then, according to opinions expressed at southern division headquarters tonight. In some cases there will be much delay because trains must be brought from St. Louis, Chicago, Houston and New Orleans. The first and second regiments of the first Illinois brigade were scheduled to leave San Antonio tonight but are not expected to get away before tomorrow.

Down on the border conditions are even less favorable. The New York units in the Brownsville district, Missouri at Laredo, Maryland at Eagle Pass Louisiana in the Brownsville district and the New Jersey at New Mexico points will not get away until after the hour when the strike of the railway trainmen is scheduled to begin. The trip northward will occupy almost a week, it is estimated.

All the troops will not return to the state mobilization camps, it is understood. In states where the federal government headquarters reservations the guardsmen will be stationed there.

SEVERAL CANDIDATES USE MOVING PICTURES AS A CAMPAIGN AID

CHICAGO, Aug. 31—Moving pictures as a campaign aid are being used in Chicago by a number of candidates in the primary contest.

Frank O. Lowden of Oregon and Frank L. Smith of Dwight, candidates for the Republican nomination for governor are both using a one reel moving picture depicting scenes in their early life with views of their farms.

Thomas Marshall, candidate for the Republican nomination for state's attorney of Cook county also is using a five reel picture portraying scenes in his life.

The candidates for county offices on the Thompson-Brundage slate are all displayed in a one reel picture especially posed for campaign purposes. The pictures are shown at political meetings and in moving picture theaters.

BILL WOULD ONLY POSTPONE STRIKE

Rail Heads Declare the Measure Would Not Settle Matter

RAILROADS OPPOSE BILL

Holden States Roads Would Not Allow an "Illegal Law to Stand If We Could Help It"

CHICAGO RAIL HEADS CONFER

CHICAGO, Aug. 31—Passage by congress o fthe Adamson compromise eight hour bill probably would postpone a trainmen's strike, but it will not settle the matter, presidents of two western railroads declared tonight. They declared such a law is not satisfactory to the railroads.

"If the men accept the Adamson compromise, its effect will probably be that of postponing the strike," said President E. P. Ripley of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad. "But it will not settle the matter. Such a measure might well be satisfactory to the men, inasmuch as it gives them what they are seeking, an eight hour day with ten hour pay. It is not satisfactory to the railroads. Congress has no right to pass such a measure."

H. R. Kurrie, president of the Monon expressed similar views. He said it might postpone matters. Mr. Ripley declared that in event of passage of the Adamson bill the railroads' only recourse would probably be in the courts. He intimated this recourse would be sought.

"That, however, is a matter for the managers to decide for themselves," he declared.

Hale Holden, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad who was spokesman for the railway managers at their recent conferences with the president declared that passage of the Adamson bill would be far from satisfactory to the railroads and would not settle the pending controversy.

"The railroads would take no precipitate action in event the bill were passed," said Mr. Holden. "We would not be hasty because we would consider the interests of the public.

"But we certainly would not allow an illegal law to stand if we could help it. It is my understanding that the supreme court of the United States has held recently in two cases, that the congress of the United States has absolutely no power to fix wages. That is what the Adamson bill amounts to, according to my understanding.

"The railroad managers will not act hastily, but the Adamson bill, if passed, would only postpone the issue."

Marvin Hughett, Jr., vice-president of the Chicago & Northwestern, said that even in the event of a strike his road had received such assurances of loyalty from trainmen as to justify the prediction that passenger service would be maintained practically unimpaired.

E. D. Sewall, vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, said that his road had assurances from its men which justified a statement that the road would be able to care for the real necessities of the public. It was reported that others of the twenty three roads centering in Chicago felt that enforcement of the strike order would fail to cripple them by reason of the loyalty of old employes and the promise of service of thousands of former trainmen.

Presidents of Chicago railroads met at the Chicago Club this afternoon. Hale Holden, president of the Burlington, who headed the committee which conferred with President Wilson was present, as was J. W. Higgins, chairman of the association of western railways. A brief statement issued after the meeting said:

"Methods of dealing with the conditions which will be created if the strike comes were discussed but no definite and final plans were adopted."

Similar meetings will be held daily until the situation has cleared.

The railroads of the country completed embargo preparations. Employes were advised to take sober second thought as to the future before striking and advertisements for

Will Aid Patriotism

As a result of the order from Archbishop Mundelein, "America first" propaganda is to be given a distinct impetus. By this order the teaching of all languages except the English is to be abolished in the primary parochial schools of Chicago, where more than 125,000 children of foreign birth or parentage are attending. The archbishop believes that by this plan that definite lessons in patriotism will be taught almost automatically and that the children will grow up into American citizens, making "America first" in truth. The change in text books will involve an enormous sum, but the expenditure is certainly justified by the results which can confidently be expected.

The Pensioners Predicament

The injunction suit which the Union Pacific conductor in Nebraska has brought to prevent union officials from issuing a strike order gives an inuex to the feelings of some of the trainmen. There is more than mere frendliness to the railroad managers behind this suit. There is personal interest, for this conductor, like many other of the employes, will sacrifice his pension claims if he joins a strike. All of the larger railroad systems of the country have pension plans in effect and there are thousands of employes who within a comparatively few years will be entitled to benefits from this fund. If they remain in the employment of the companies. This condition is doubtless one of the influences which has given the railroad managers confidence to declare that even if the strike should come they will be able to move at least half of their trains.

Historic Ground

Colonel Roosevelt has some reason to feel flattered that President Wilson has selected Portsmouth, New Hampshire, as the scene for the Mexican conference soon to convene. That is historic ground, for it was there thru the instrumentality of Colonel Roosevelt, then president, that the emissaries of Russia and Japan met to settle the differences between those two world powers. The coming conference will not attract such world wide attention, since it is really a conference between the United States and the representatives of an unstable governmnt, whos citizens have ruthlessly killed many American citizens.

The Canning Factory Propositi0n

The proposition to locate a canning factory here if assurance can be given of sufficient product is seemingly the best that has come to the attention of local citizens for a number of years. While the name of the company according to their wish must be held in confidence at this time it is known that the concern is one of the largest and most reliable in the business. It frequently happens that comparatively small canning companies seek locations and ask a considerable bonus and insist upon other conditions which do not make their coming especialy desirable. With the company now proposing to locate in Jacksonville it is a different matter and no conditions are proposed which cannot be readily met by the business men of Jacksonville. The whole project hinges upon the definite assurance that the farmers and landowners hereabout will take enough interest to raise tomatoes for the proposed plant. It will be necessary for scores of farmers living within a radius of twenty miles of the city to give evidence of their interest and their willingness to develop a crop which the canning factory will use.

This does not mean that the farmtributions. On the other hand the tomato crop is profitable and it is known that the soil hereabouts is well suited to the tomato plant. It does require labor and lots of it to raise tomatoes in a large way and what the company wants to know is whether or not the farmars are willing to undertake this work and to assure the company that tomatoes will be furnished them in large quantities. One point of appeal about the proposition is that the raising of tomatoes fits in nicely with crop rotation plans. A man who is well versed in such matters said yesterday that the growing of tomatoes uses soil elements which are not required for other crops and to include tomatoes in a rotation of crops will help build up the soil.

The matter is one of great interest to the residents of a town and the people of the country because to provide an outlet for a new crop here will mean increased activity on the farms, higher prices for the land and the people of the town will be benefited as well as those in the country. The meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon should be largely attended.

Worse Than Border Service

Parents and other relatives of soldiers who were taken to the Mexican border a few weeks since in many instances believed that they were saying a final farewell to the soldiers, but now a worse condition confronts those regiments that are coming back home, for the return order has been given in view of the possible need of the militiamen for strike duty. It's bad enough to do service under the boiling sun at the border, but service in event of a great railroad strike would be far worse. Certainly the lot of the guardsmen is not a happy one, but fortunately the indications are growing hourly stronger that the great projected strike wil be averted and that there will be no need for soldiery.

Two Views.

Senator Penrose and President Wilson have both isued warnings regarding the situation which will arise in this country after the war. Mr. Penrose forsees an era of the keenest competition, the European manufacturing centers flooded with returned soldiers, the price of labor even lower than normally and the European governments working desperately to gain foreign trade in order to win back the gold they have had to send abroad, especially to this country. President Wilson regards the coming of peace as "America's opportunity," but he declares that "the problem of disunion" will be "more difficult to fight than that of the Civil war." Mr. Wilson does not say that this country is to be congratulated that it has in himself one to grasp and solve this tremedous problem. He only makes it clear that such is his personal conviction.

Wilson declares, "In the third place, I think it is evident that the United States will understand herself better than ever before. The war and all its atendent circumstances have cried her wide awake to both the dangers of her life and its enormous possibilities and advantages."

As Senator Borah Sees Legislative Evils

Altho Senator Borah was unable to be present at the meeting of the American Bar association in Chicago he sent a notable message by Senator Sutherland. Mr. Borah sought to impress the lawyers that it is their duty to pay more attention to laws "in the making" and to give to legislators the benefit of their advice and training. Comment was made upon the laxity with which laws are drafted an dthe senator said that courts have done surprisingly well in interpretation of laws which are so often enacted amid the most sinister and selfish surroundings.

The statement will make a special apeal to those persons who are familiar with the scenes in state legislatures where most of the law making is postponed until the closing hours of the session.

Senator Borah is not only one of the strong men of the Republivan party but of the nation, and his record in public life has given proof of his ability and his desire to keep the interests of the people paramount. He has the faculty in his public utterance of seting forth great truth in a striking way and this was instanced in his Thursday address. Many of the troubles and much of the injustice coming from improper laws could be obviated if the suggestion made by Mr. Borah were carried out by lawyers or even by laymen. The great trouble is, to again quote the senator's language, "the sinister and unselfish influences" which surround legislatures. If the public gave proper attention to the selection of the legislative candidates and then closely scrutinized the work of these men, the results would be much better for the people at large.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

CHARLES AND I

I met Charles Hughes in Estes Park, where large and rocky mountains be; and I shall treasure each remark that this great man addressed to me. The gems of thought from great men's lips are pearls we humbler men should prize, nor can the passing years eclipse the observations of the wise. "I shall be glad when summer's ceased," he said; "the heat has been a strain; but now the wind is in the east, and I predict we'll soon have rain. In May and June it rained too much, and then the siege of drouth began; wheat shriveled at the hot wind's touch, and corn appeared an also ran. The talk of Issues never stops, and Issues oft have little worth; I think the weather and the crops are all that count for much on earth. If we have rain when rain's desired, and sunshine when such shine we need, man gets all things he has desired, and all our theories run to seed. In politics man's toil is vain; his problems vex him, then they pass; give us a million dollar rain, and nothing else will cut much grass."

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco as the best." "Makes the teeth glisten and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "I am indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulate you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know; why not go to your dealer today and get a tube of SENRECO 25c. Keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay.

A copy of the folder, "The Most General Disease in the World" together with a liberal trial size tube of SENRECO will be mailed you for 4c in stamps. The Sentanel Remedies Co., Inc. Dept. B. Masonic Temple, Cincinnati, Ohio.

PARK BOARD NOTES.

The park board met last evening in regular session and transacted a variety of business.

Measures were taken to have the wood part of the bridge repaired as its condition may soon become unsafe.

The grounds occupied by the chautauqua were reported in an untidy condition and a promise was received from the secretary of the association that a force would be sent out today and have the matter attended to properly. The association also indicated a willingness to do some of the cleaning.

A committee appointed to look into the matter of buying a summer house from a citizen of the city reported unfavorably.

PREPARE FOR STRIKE.

Evidences of the threatened strike of railroad trainmen may be seen on every hand. For several days past all of the hotels in the city have had many traveling men. Practically all of these men have received orders to come in and are on their way now expecting to reach their respective homes before Monday.

In mercantile lines also the same conditions show. Mercnants are endeavoring to secure needed goods before Monday and are fortunate if they can be secured from westrn shipping points. Manufacturing plants in the city are laying in supplies of coal and material so far as their storing capacity will permit.

STATE BLUE BOOK PRESENTS INTERESTING FACTS

Edition Just Issued by Secretary Stevenson Gives Complete Illinois Data.

The Blue Book of the State of Illinois for 1915-1916 has just been issued and is a marvel in completeness and arrangement. It was personally edited and arranged by Secretary of State Lewis G. Stevenson.

GOTHAM TO LABEL ITS EGGS

New York, Aug. 31—A new law effective tomorrow is calculated to make the New Yorker sure of his eggs. The law requires labelling of cold storage eggs on the shell, in letters at least one-eighth of an inch. While this will probably help the housewife to secure fresh eggs it has not been made quite clear just how it is going to benefit the restaurant patron who orders two fried or a plate scrambled.

SHERMAN ATTACKS PRESIDENT'S RECORD

FORMALLY NOTIFIES FAIRBANKS OF HIS NOMINATION

Declares that Whatever the Result of the Election, Indiana Will Give the Government Its Vice-President Who Will Be An "Eminent and Capable Man."

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—Formally notifying Charles W. Fairbanks here today of his nomination by the Republican party for vice-president, Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, of Illinois, vigorously attacked the record of President Wilson and the democratic party, and declared that whatever the result of the election, Indiana would give the government its vice president who would be "an eminent and capable man and a gentleman."

The text of Senator Sherman's speech follows:

"Mr. Charles W. Fairbanks:

"Pursuant to instructions of the Republican national convention of 1916 and in behalf of the committee of notification, you are formally advised of your nomination as the candidate of the republican party for vice president.

"Whatever the result of the election, an eminent and capable man and a gentleman will serve our country in that official capacity. Indiana will still give the government its vice president. As he will be chosen on a party victory the campaign will be on elemental and not personal differences.

"Both candidates on our national ticket enlisted on the call of the Republican convention representing a majority of the American people. Neither hesitated in volunteering his services. Both are now rendering that service in the common cause of redeeming the country from the misrule and habitual incapacity of the Democratic party now nearing the end of its third failure in half a century.

A One Term Party.

"In the Providence that watches over the affairs of men, the mismanagement of the democratic party is always limited to one term. The inclusion of a one term pledge in its platform in 1912 and its significant absence in 1916 will not prevent the practical operation of the principle. President Wilson relied upon it when a candidate and not only failed to keep it when in office but repudiated it in his Palmer letter a month before he was inaugurated. The American people will enforce obedience to his broken promise as well as the penalty for a series of the most remarkable breaches of platform pledges in the history of American politics.

"The Republican party does not rely merely upon the broken faith of its political adversary. The performances of the democratic party are worse than its broken promises. It is a helpless aggregation drifting aimlessly in our foreign affairs and driving with malign purpose toward industrial ruin in our domestic affairs.

"It has utterly failed to read the significance of world wide events and resulting conditions in their relation to our future trade. It leaves us exposed and helpless for either offensive or defensive business operations at home or abroad when peace is restored.

"It trusts to chance for its issues and to opportunity for its alleged principles. If it ever arrives at any given point it is by accident and not by intelligent design in following a defined and extended course of action. As the inevitable result of war it claims the credit of trade balances with which the legislation of the Democratic party had no more to do than the change of seasons which Holy Writ promises us while the earth remaineth. The largest affirmative result in this Democratic administration is its appropriations. Its largest negative thing is its treasury deficit visible through the most marvelous system of bookkeeping ever devised since the ancients invented the science of numbers. It is worthy of a promoter rather than a financier.

The Odious Stamp Tax.

"It has resorted to an odious stamp tax in time of peace for the first time in our history. Its excise taxes on occupations, investments, merchandise and insurance, with its small collections of customs duties, brand the Democratic party as incapable in peace and incompetent to develop and protect our resources for defensive war.

"The Republicans and the majority of the American people favor a protective tariff. One half our government receipts ought to be collected from customs duties protective in character. We believe in this as a cardinal principle of our party faith. Our adversaries admit the soundness of the Republican principles by restoring the duty on sugar and favoring in the revenue bill now pending a protective rate on dyes and their component materials and an anti-dumping law the essential principle of which they rejected when offered by Republicans as an amendment to the Democratic tariff act of 1913.

"We will distribute the burdens of taxation equitably and not sectionally. Property is now classified and taxed so that some kinds are exempt and others are taxed so as to bear nearly all the buredns of obnoxious special taxes. Our genuinely American foreign policies never have been and are not now expressed in and will not be performed by diplomatic notes worthless at their face value and gone to protest in the foreign capitals of both hemispheres.

"Our foreign trade will be encouraged and sustained by protecting American citizens and their property wherever found. Our citizens abroad for commercial purposes will not be accused of commercial greed and selfish ends when they ask their country for protection and safety.

No Reason for War.

"If there ever was any reason why the American people should go to war with any nation in Europe this principle campaign asset would weigh with the thinking people of the republic. It is a claim to a spurious virtue for there is no more cause for war with any European belligerent than Pierce had in the Crimean war, Grant in the Franco-Prussian war or Roosevelt in the Russo-Japanese war. If this administration cannot manage the Mexican affair what would it do with a powerful, resourceful and united nation?

"Mr. Fairbanks, you will bring to your office experience, ability, devotion to duty and a high standard of Republican faith. On behalf of our committee and our party, I congratulate you, the state of Indiana, and our country on your selection as a candidate for the highest office save one in the gift of the American people."

SIXTEEN REMAIN IN PLAY IN NATIONAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Of the 128 players who entered the 36th annual singles championship tournament of the National Tennis association Monday only sixteen remained in play at the end of the third round today. Of these nine represented the east, six the Pacific Coast and one the south.

The eastern contingent comprises Wallace F. Johnson, Philadelphia; W. Merrill Hall, New York; E. H. Whitney, New York; W. J. Clothier, Philadelphia; R. Norris Williams, Philadelphia; William M. Washburn and Leonard Beekman, New York; George M. Church, Tenafly, N. J. and Karl H. Behr, New York.

A western squad included Clarence J. Griffin, San Francisco; E. R. McCormick, Los Angeles; Willis E. Davis, California; William M. Johnston, San Francisco, the title holder; Maurice E. McLoughlin, Los Angeles, champion in 1912 and 1913, and R. Lindley Murray, formerly of California, but now a resident of New York.

The south's representative was Douglas S. Watters, New Orleans. Lillie and Nettie Hills, Mrs. Howell

BOTH WELSH AND WHITE TRAIN BEFORE CAPACITY HOUSES

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo, Aug. 31.—Indications that the railroad strike situation would be unlikely to interfere with the twenty round championship bout here next Monday afternoon between Feddie Welsh and Charley White resulted in many seat reservations being wired today from Chicago, St. Louis and cities on both the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards.

Both Welsh and White trained today before capacity houses and their fast work was awarded with frequent applause. Welsh is down to his fighting weight of 135 pounds while his opponent is three quarters of a pound heavier. What little betting that is taking place locally has been at evens, the heavy-weight boxer "Fireman" Jim Flynn of Pueblo placing considerable money on Welsh on this basis. Every train that comes into town now is bringing new arrivals. Preparations have been made for the parking of 2,500 automobiles.

WOOLGROWERS IN SESSION

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 30.—An exhibition and sale of half a million dollars' worth of rams is to feature the fifty-third annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' association, which assembled in this city today. Several thousand picked animals are to be offered at public auction, including representatives from the ranges of England, Australia, New Zealand, South America, Canada and the United States.

The business sessions of the convention will continue several days. A wide variety of problems affecting sheepmen from the best represented parts of the country will be discussed. Just how different ranges are adapted to particular kinds of sheep will be determined and the best ways of grazing, wintering, shearing and dipping will be brought out. Methods of marketing sheep products, railroad tariffs and shipping rates also will be discussed.

J. T. Thady of Manchester arrived in the city yesterday to accompany his daughter Cecil to their home. Miss Thady has been a patient at Passavan Hospital.

SATISFY!

—what does that mean?

It means that NEW quality, in a cigarette, that does for your smoking exactly what a drink of cold water does for your thirst!

To satisfy, a cigarette must do far more than just "please" you—it must let you know you've been smoking.

That's what Chesterfields do—they satisfy! And yet they're MILD!

For the first time in the history of cigarettes, here's a cigarette that satisfies and yet is mild! Chesterfields!

Other cigarettes may be mild, but they don't satisfy.

BUT, Chesterfields satisfy—yet they're mild!

This is new enjoyment for a cigarette to give. It is something that no cigarette, except Chesterfields, can give you—regardless of price.

Why?

Because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!

Try Chesterfields—today!

It's the pure Turkish tobacco in Chesterfield Cigarettes that does it. The famous Chesterfield blend contains the highest-quality Turkish tobaccos:—CAVALLA for its aroma; XANTHI for its fragrance; SMYRNA for its sweetness; SAMSOUN for its richness.

IMPROVED OUTLOOK IN RAIL TROUBLE RALLIES WHEAT PRICE

Close Is 3¾ Cents Net Higher—Other Leading Staples All Score Gains.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Reassuring advices that the chances of a strike were much less threatening brought about a sharp rally today in the wheat market here. In consequence the close altho unsettled was 3 to 3 net higher with Sept. at $1.42¼ and December at $1.45¾ to $1.46.

Other leading staples too all scored gains—corn ¼@⅜ to 1¼; oats ¾ to ⅞ and provisions 12½ to 60c.

Signs that big deliveries tomorrow on September contracts would pass into the hands of strong interests did a good deal to help inspire the late confidence on the part of wheat buyers. It was estimated that the deliveries in Chicago would amount to as much as 4,500,000 bushels. This total, however, was said to be equal to only one week's average requirement for Europe from now till the end of the season.

Corn like wheat derived strength chiefly from the improved outlook that railway operations would suffer no interruption. For a while tho the market was depressed by disclosures that yesterday's bearish crop estimates had turned out to be erroneous.

Oats hardened in sympathy with wheat and corn. Export houses were good buyers. Highest quotations on hogs since 1866 sent provisions sharply upgrade. The bulk of the trading was in lard, but pork led the advance.

WALL STREET'S CONFIDENCE IN RAIL SETTLEMENT RAISES PRICE

U. S. Steel Repeats its High Record of 99⅞ Made Last Week and Mercantile Marines Attain New Heights.

New York, Aug. 31.—Wall street's unswerving confidence in an amicable adjustment of the railway labor dispute found expression today in a further advance of prices after an early period of hesitation and doubt.

United States steel repeated its high record of 99⅞ made last week and mercantile marines attained new heights. Other new maximums included Inspiration Copper and Kelly-Springfield Tire. A very considerable part of these gains was obliterated in the last few minutes of trading, with the publication of a report from Washington that the president's plea with the representatives of the brotherhoods had failed. Rails and other seasoned stocks were in general demand the inquiry originating largely with the short interest which has sold stocks in expectation of a strike.

Coppers as a group made extreme advances of 1 to 3 points and minor industrials followed steel, with gains of almost as much. Equipments, munitions, the motors, zinc shares and sugars were only moderately active. Total sales, 860,000 shares.

Marks duplicated their recent minimum of 7½ in the foreign exchange market and rubles yielded some of their advance at ¾ with sterling and francs virtually unaltered. Bonds were steady. United States coupon 4s advanced ¾ percent on bid and coupon 2s, ½c on one transaction.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Words of Encouragement to Childless Women.

Motherhood is woman's natural destiny, but many women are denied the happiness of children simply because of some curable derangement.

Among the many triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its marvelous power to overcome such derangements, as evidenced by the following letter:—

Worcester, Mass.—"I suffered from female ills, and was advised to have an operation, but a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and who has six children, told me to try it. It has helped me so much that I am now well and have a baby boy who is the picture of health, and I thank the Vegetable Compound for my restoration to health."—Mrs. BERT GARVEY, 20 Hacker St., Worcester, Mass.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

WELL KNOWN MEN IN YELLOWSTONE PARK PARTY

Passenger Traffic Manager of Union Pacific Prepared Itinerary—All of Tourists are World Travelers.

Yellowstone National Park, Aug. 31—A distinguished party of national celebrities, including an ex-champion crack shot, champion humorist, champion wild-west writer, champion song writer, champion advertising man, and champion railroad man, are touring Yellowstone Park, oblivious to the possibilities of settlement one way or the other of the railroad strike.

They arrived here by private car, over the Union Pacific System, after having been entertained at Omaha, Salt Lake City and Ogden, by leading state and city officials, during the early part of this week. While one of the objects of the party is to seek added material at this delightful time of the year, to supplement Secretary of the Interior Lane's recent interesting book, issued to the public on Yellowstone National Park, these tourists are planning to visit the whole Rocky Mountain district, covering by automobile and rail, the entire National playground reached by the Union Pacific system.

The party includes Captain Tom A. Marshall, ex-champion trap shot of America, Ring W. Lardner, of Riverside, Illinois, the Chicago Tribune, Palm Beach, Indiana—the only and original "bush-leaguer" — Emerson Hough the celebrated writer of Western Life stories, Eugene Cowles, the composer and song-writer, Albert D. Lasker of Chicago, and Gerrit Fort, Passenger Traffic Manager of the Union Pacific System.

All members of the party have been here before, but never together, on a well planned vacation. Captain Tom Marshall said today:

"There are all kinds of other artists than painters in this party, which reminds me of what Frederick Remington, the world's most distinguished painter of American Life in the West and western scenery, said when he stood on the brim of the Grand Canyon of Yellowstone National Park, the first time he visited here, many years ago.

"Mr. Remington had come here with the purpose of painting Nature's most wonderful color scheme known on the face of the globe, as millions have viewed it in Yellowstone National Park. After standing here a moment, as we are standing today, Mr. Remington threw up both arms and exclaimed—"This looks as if the world's greatest paint shop had exploded. I came here to paint the Grand Canyon of Yellowstone National Park, but I am going home. Any artist that was ever born would be a fool to try to portray on canvas the wonders of this view before me. No man could paint it." No man can appreciate the grandeur and infinite variety of coloring and change unless he comes and stands here and tours the park as we are touring it."

Captain Marshall has penetrated the wilds of almost every part of the world, with which he is as familiar as with his own America. Other members of the party have also been world travelers in every clime, civilized and uncivilized. The spirit of this tour seems to be to discover everything new as well as old in the Rocky Mountain district, for the personal delight of the members of the party, and later for the enlightenment of the public on what to see in America First.

A FARM BUREAU REPORT.

The annual Farm Bureau picnic was held last Friday at the County Farm. The speaking platform and seats were erected in the Ballenger Grove just west of the County Farm buildings and there the autos were parked and basket dinners were eaten at noon. It was a perfect picnic day and the crowd consistd mostly of Farm Burueau members and their families numbering about 500. In the morning, President H. W. Danforth introduced Dr. Geo. N. Coffey, assistant state leader in charge of county farm bureau work in this state. He made a splendid address and told about some of the successful work accomplished in various counties. This talk gave an idea of some of the lines of work the Farm Bureau can undertake and find opportunity for doing a lot of good. Dr. Coffey mentioned the spendid results that had been secured all over the state for treating oats for smut and called attention to the fact that practically all the oats in Tazewell county were treated for smut this year.

A chart was displayed showing the figures for each year's work in this county which indicated that the net results of the oats smut campaign in Tazewell county during the three years has reached a total of $211,207 figuring the extra oats crop at 35c a bushel and taking actual threshing returns from treated and untreated fields as an indication of the gain.

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves immensely during the noon hour and quite a number of large groups gathered to visit while eating. Afterwards the ladies kept on visiting while the men took a stroll around the county farm. Particular interest was manifested in the clover, sweet clover and alfalfa. They were shown a 12-acre piece of mixed clover and timothy which was pastured closely this year the last week in April and the first two weeks in May. Then the stock was removed and 20 big loads of hay were taken off the first week in July. Now the clover has made a big growth and is setting big heads full of sead. The clover is much larger and the seed much more abundant than in an adjoining piece of clover which was handled exactly in the same way, except in the soil treatment. The 12-acre field was covered with phosphae rock two years ago. There was also a splendid crop of corn filling out big ears on the ten-acre piece of phosphate ground which yielded 47½ bushels of wheat to the acre last year. The visitors were also pleased with the splendid young alfalfa growing in the wheat stubble on a 29-ocre field. The sweet clover field was pastured heavily this year and the visitors were shown a heavy crop of seed just ready to cut. The last hogs were removed from this field on Wednesday, August 23rd, and Mr. Ireland topped the market in Peoria that day with 27 head of 210 pound hogs at $11.05 per cwt. The hog business is an important factor on the county farm and during the last 12 months Mr. Ireland has sold 97 head for a total of $2,033, and he also butched 60 head of fat hogs last winter for consumption by the inmates. The men were well pleased with the appearance of 110 spring pigs which Mr. Ireland is still feeding on corn, tankage and alfalfa pasture. A lot of these will soon be ready to sell.

The trip of inspection wound up with a view of the farm horses. All the work on the 200 acre farm is done this year with eight head of horses and besides the farm work they hauled about 12 cars of coal. This is harder work than the farming. One of these is an old gray mare that had heaves so badly that she was worthless for work two years ago, but she has been treated for heaves and now does very well. Two of the horses are old geldings, two are young geldings, three and four years old, and three are brood mares. All three of these mares are now nursing late summer foals. These are common mares but they have splendid colts sired by A. L. Robison and Sons' Percheron horse Alien.

The principle address of the day was made by Hon. Chas. Adkins of Bement, former speaker of the house of representatives and now president of the Illinois Live Stock association. He gave a stirring speech on "Co-operation Among Farmers" especially for the purpose of improving their methods of producing and marketing their products. He cited a good many instances of successful lines undertaken by county farm bureaus and told of the benefits which members had secured from this work. Mr. Adkins had a fund of funny stories which were right to the point. Much of the pleasure of the program was due to the mixed quartet from Pekin. The quartet sang a number of beautiful selections.

E. T. Robins, County Agricultural Agent.

The Hogless Farm

It is a surprising fact that some farms do not support a single hog. It is exceedingly hard to find any good reason why this should be true. Probably in most cases the hogless farm is the result of indifference on the part of the owner, a lack of interest in hogs, perhaps a positive dislike for them. While we do find the hogless farm it is very hard to find a farmer or a member of a farmer's family to whom pork as a food is distasteful, considering the many ways in which it may be prepared for serving.

When we produce a food product that is so universally used as pork, in an economical way, we are in the long run bound to come out on the right side of the ledger. The production of porkers for market pays in most localities, but the production of pork for home consumption pays in every locality.

The boy who grows up on a farm where a hog is never butchered, misses what every farm boy is entitled to. It may not seem much now that you are grown up and have perhaps put away childish things, but carry yourself back to the excitement of butchering day, cutting up the carcass, salting some down, smoking hams, and best of all, making sausage, and it will be easy to see that these things together with the joy of eating fresh pork and the good home-cured meats, constitute pleasures one would not quickly banish from memory. Home-cured meat is the cheapest and the best. And still some farmers do not raise a hog!—The Farmers' Review, Chicago.

White Hall

R. V. Smith was up from Alton Saturday, where he attended the first annual White Hall Chautauqua.

Chas. V. Short left Saturday for Rankin, Illinois, to begin duty as instructor in manual training and other subjects in the township high school of that place. The position is a distinct promotion from his similar position at White Hall, which he filled very acceptably during the past year, the salary being an increase of $125 annually over that received at White Hall. His family will go later. Rankin is located in the northwest corner of Vermillion county.

Respecting the death of Rufus B. Higbee, whose burial took place at St. Louis last week, Mrs. Annette H. Cheney, sister of the deceased, writes the following information that will be of interest because the Higbee family were former residents of White Hall: "Rufus was in the merchandising business in Silver City, Colorado for many ears. He owned some valuable mines in Idaho, Montana and Nevada, all of which he held outright, except the Nevada mines near Battle, Montana. He was the last of the six sons of the family, and was aged 72 years. He died at Danville Sanitarium, New York, and was buried from Wagoner chapel, Bellefontaine cemetery, St. Louis. He was an invalid for the past 28 years, during which time he has been in no business."

A beautiful memorial to the late Hon. Mark Meyerstein has been erected in the White Hall cemetery, the work being completed past week by C. S. Doyle, the local monument dealer. It is made of extra dark Quincy granite ,the material being obtainted from the Quarry from which the Bunker Hil monument was secured. It stands seven feet high, face three feet and top piece two inches thick, mounted on a suitable base. Two margers of substantial design and construction are located on either side of the monument.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clouder, of Springfield, have been spending the past week with the former's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Clouder.

Glenn Kinser participated in the athletic meet at Chicago last Saturday, and won fifth place in the jump at 5 feet 10 inches.

Glasgow has arranged for a good roads picnic, their second asnual, on September 14th. By that date the marking of the Big Four Trail will be completed through this section, making the route complete between Terre Haute and Kansas City. The Glasgow picnic will in part celebrate this completion of the trail, which has been held up for a year owing to differences between officials of the Association.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen were up from Greenfield Saturday and Sunday and attended the White Hall chautauqua. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Grant.

M. A. Allen was up from Medora Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baker will leave this week for Kansas City, where Mr. Baker will resume sheep buying for a commission firm of that city. They are making the trip in their auto.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baker and daughter, Miss Laura, arrived home last week from their tour of the west and northwest, including Yellowstone National Park. This part of the journey was made as guests of Senator Gene Lane of Lewistown, Montana, one of the prominent men of that state. Mr. Baker regards Spokane as a more acceptable residence city than Portland, but thinks Los Angeles the best of them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Releford and daughter left for Murrayville last Friday on their return to Bloomington, traveling in their car. They spent several days here. The White Hall friends of Mr. Relgford are pleased to note his evidenc of prosperity. He owns a valuable farm in McLean county, but has been located in Bloomington for several years, where their daughter is being educated.

The Baptist fish fry at Hillview last Saturday was a very successful affair in face of threatening rain, the receipts from the dinner being about $185.00. A horse and colt show was held in connection, and the general result shows it to have been the most successful annual fish fry held by the Hillview Baptists.

W. Edom, of St. Louis, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Davis. He had been at Pittsfield to attend the anual reunion of the 99th Illinois regiment, of which he was a member during the Civil war.

WHIPPLE ACADEMY PRINCIPAL

Prof. C. L. Robinson of Spokane, Washington, has arrived in the city to take up the work of principal of Whipple Academy to which he has been chosen. The gentleman is a graduate of Harvard university from which institution he has a degree and comes highly recommended. He is a very pleasant gentleman and will doubtless succeed well in the work he is to undertake.

Miss Marie Kyle who has been spending a pleasant vacation returned yesterday to her duties at Passavant Hospital.

LETTER FROM COLORED VOTERS.

August 31, 1916.

To The Jacksonville Journal:

We, the colored workingmen or a portion thereof desire to express thru your paper our position in regard to the different candidates as far as we can see at present. Of course you know we are for Hughes and Fairbanks first, last and all the time. Now as to the state ticket. There are only two men offering themselves that we know. First, Andrew Russell, of whom no Afro-American citizen can say any harm. He has aided and assisted more citizens than any other one man in Morgan county. We recognize the fact that a man in politics makes more enemies than any other man. Therefore we are prepared to hear Mr. Russell assailed as being everything but a child of God.

Mr. Geo. H. Wilson, candidate for Attorney General, we only know thru a few friends and most sincerely hope he measures up to the standard of efficiency to which he has been praised. If after investigation we find such to be the case he will receive our most earnest support. Now Mr. Editor, there is no opposition in our club to the following candidates for county voffices: States Atty., Fred L. Gregory; for Representative 45th Senatorial dist., Hugh Green; for clerk of circuit court Fred B. Henderson. Not claiming any special powers but believing that we can materially aid in the selection and election of these good men and true we remain yours respectfully,

A. E. Ewing, Sec'y. Colored Workmen, Jos. Gibson, Chas. Brown, H. C. Wright, W. H. Chappell.

SENATOR BORAH URGES CARE IN FRAMING LAWS

Address Read Before American Bar Association Points To Lax Methods of Legislation.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—A plea for a more general interest in legislation on the part of the country's lawyers was made before a meeting of the American Bar association toay by Senator William E. Borah of Idaho. In an address which was read by Senator Sutherland of Utah as Mr. Borah was unable to be present. The purpose of the legislation would be served more fully, according to Senator Borah, were the same impartial care exercised in its framing as is given it in its interpretation by the courts.

Scrutiny and criticism by great lawyers, acting solely in the public interest said the senator, would have the greatest influence for good when laws are being moulded.

Lawyers Should Aid.

"Our courts are being constantly assailed for constructions placed upon statutes," said Senator Borah, "but, candidly, the marvel to me is, in view of the influences which surround legislation, the careless and indifferent manner in which bills are drafted, the selfish and sinister influences which warp our statutes in the making, that the courts have done as well as they have in interpreting them. If the American bar would look upon our great statutes somewhat as the great lawyers in private life looked in on affairs in 1688 and 1787, it would be a wholesome influence the extent of which could be measured neither by time nor words.

"You say this is a great deal to ask, a great deal to expect that men turn aside from tneir personal concerns to help with the work which others have been selected to do. But I reply there is a vast amount at stake and further give it as my deliberate opinion that these institutions of ours cannot be kept intact if we are to depend alone upon those who hold public office."

Lawyers, said Senator Borah, owe a particular duty to the community in the work of framing laws because of their special knowledge.

Differing Responsibility.

"The difference in responsibility between a man in public office and the citizen in private life in one of degree only," he said, "but if the lay citizen owes something to the public far greater the obligation of a lawyer. Almost every conceivable question, almost every matter of moment to the citizen at this time involves in some way a knowledge of the law and the training which enabled us to adjust well-known legal principles to our new industrial and social conditions."

Senator Borah declared the lawyer who becomes a public official has no right to hold a retainer while writing a law in the public interest, and a law that may affect his client adversely.

"A member of congress," he said, "is in an indefensible position who is called upon to legislate concerning those matters in which his clients may have an interest and which may concern them vitally. Men do not give large retainers to the men engaged in public service in order that these men may more thoroughly look after the public interest. They give them because they expect them to be amenable to reason in an emergency an in order that they may be sufficiently conservative in not yielding to that radicalism which takes alone into consideration the public interest.

"I venture to prophesy that the people will in due time insist that their representatives in congress shall stand as free from the relationship of client and attorney with reference to all those matters upon which they are called to legislate as now characterizes the great tribunal which passes finally upon the constitutionality of the laws which we make.

RAYMOND HUFFORD WILL COACH HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

Has Had Experience As Coach and Instructor of English in High Schools—Is Hanover Graduate—The J. H. S. Prospects.

Raymond Hufford, a graduate of Hanover College, and an experienced coach and instructor of English has been engaged to fill the positions of coach and English instructor at the Jacksonville High School. Mr. Hufford is ably qualified for both of these positions and has successfully filled them in other High schools. He is highly recommended both by boards of education and authorities in his alma mater. His record as an athlete while in college is an enviable one and with the material he has at hand some winning teams should be seen this year. He is a man of 28 years and will arrive in the city next week.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of school. The rearrangement of the buildings will prove both more satisfactory to the pupils and teachers and will be in accordance with the sugestions offered by the state fire marshall. Prospects are good in all branches of athletics and Coach Hufford will have men on the field practicing for football at an early date.

Prospects are good for the football season. Six good games have been scheduled so far and as soon as Manager T. P. Carter can get in touch with the coach more will be arranged for. In regard to material for the football team, the prospects are very good. Last year the team started practically unexperienced. Nearly all the men on this years team had experience last year and there should be a strong team put out at the high school. Captain Fierke, if his work improves as much as it did during last season, will be one of the best ends in the state. King at full-back is showing such speed that he bids fair to be as good as Killebrew, so well known as a high school full back. Reeve and Ferguson should develop into good ends and McCallister and Molohon are in line for a good race for the quarter back position. Molohon ran the team some last year, and McCallister is intending to put forth his best efforts to make that position Howard and Homer Reynolds will be in line for the half back positions, and the line is practically left open for new aspirants, or second team men of last year. Professor Carter said last night that several new students would arrive from the country who would give followers of the sport a surprise when they appeared on the gridiron.

Basket ball is yet distant, but many who will not go out for the fall sport will be seen in the gymnasium at the opening of school getting in readiness for the season. Tomlinson, last year's star will be missed, but it is expected that a good team will be ready to meet the other schools, and prospective players already have a glimpse of the tournament cup.

Track events will be begun as soon as the basket ball season is over and inside work will be in progress all winter. A number of last year's stars will be back and the track team should be the best one in any high school of this size in the state.

THE STRIKE MAY COME BUT THERE WILL BE NO IMMEDIATE COAL SHORTAGE. YOUR ORDERS WILL RECEIVE OUR CAREFUL ATTENTION. WALTON & CO.

Both looked bronzed with the trip but seemed to be in good health and spirits. Mrs. Morris is a deaf mute but was taking in all the sights of the clay and country and enjoying it to the full. Farmers Institute Has Received Many Applications — Shriners Throng Springfield.

Springfield, Aug. 31—Two thousand shriners from every nook of the state assembled here today for one of the greatest celebrations of the year. After a monstrous parade and a banquet in the afternoon they hold their semi-annual initiation proceedings at the arsenal tonight. One hundred and fifty neophytes were taken into the temple.

R. C. Moore, secretary to the Ill. State teachers association, who spoke before the teachers institute here this morning, stated that in the next assembly of the legislature, there is certain to be an enactment to a law which will afford free high school tuition to every county school graduate in the state of Illinois.

TOMATO CULTURE GIVES SATISFACTORY RETURNS

Facts From Agriculturad Bulletin Show That Crop Pays Well—Soil Here Well Adapted.

From farmers bulletins of the U.S. department of agriculture and others issued by the agricultural experiment stations which are on file at the Farmers State Bank & Trust company the following facts about tomatoes are taken. They are of special interest now that the proposition is under consideration of establishing a tomato canning plant in this city.

The average production of tomatoes per acre in this country is 125 to 150 bushels, but by specializing this crop acreage can readily be raised to 200 bushels. The increase in the business is shown by the fact that in 1887 three million cases of twenty-four cans each were packed, and in twenty years the business has grown to thirteen million cases. Tomatoes will grow in a soil that is comparatively poor but will not do as well as on rich black soil like that to be found on many Morgan county farms.

In Indiana the best yields are secured in sandy loam soils which are well drained. The plan followed there is to plow deep in the fall and then disc the land every few weeks until spring, when the young plants are set out. On lands that are deficient fertilizers can be used with good results just as with other crops. The growing of tomatoes has become an important agricultural industry and they can be grown readily as a part of the general farming program. Most of the work of cultivation can be done with horses just as with average farm crops. The large amount of hand labor comes at the harvest time, for the way that tomatoes grow it is not possible to do any of that work with special machinery or tools.

Shallow Cultivation Best

Where tomatoes are grown in a large way it has been found that level and shallow cultivation gets better results than hilling or ridging methods. Under ordinary conditions the first tomatoes are ready to gather about eighty days after the plants have been set out. The Indiana records show average yields of six to ten tons per acre and the losses from insect and diseases have been insignificant. The agriculturists who have investigated the subject thoroly are firm in the belief that where tomato cultivation is followed with intelligent methods that the average tonnage can easily be increased to twelve or fifteen tons per acre. The records also show that $35 is the average cost for raising an acre of tomatoes and as the average price is from $7 to $8.50 per ton, it will take five tons under ordinary conditions to pay expenses and production above that amount can be counted as profit.

The Average Yield

The average farmer could not count on a maximum yield but with $50 to $75 an acre as profit under best conditions he could safely figure on a higher rate from tomatoes than the average farm crop even if his yield fell far below the maximum. One advantage about tomato raising is that the plants will grow on a great variety of soils. Any land which will grow potatoes will grow tomatoes to good advantage. After the plants have been set out in the spring the first cultivation should be deep in order to save the moisture and subsuquent cultivations are shallower in order that the roots of the plants shall not disturbed. As stated the first tomatoes are ready about eighty days after the plants are set out and then the harvesting continues for a number of weeks or until the killing frosts come. In most localities where tomato growing has been developed in a large way the most satisfactory agreement between the growers and the canners has been for the product from a certain number of acres rather than an agreement on any certain tonnage.

Easy to Cultivate

Down in the southern part of this state many tomatoes are grown for the early market and more attention is paid to early production than to quantity. It is possible there to plant in April but it is not entirely safe and frequently the plants are destroyed by late frost. The 10th of May is considered the earliest safe date for planting, even in the southern part of the state. The average number of plants per acre is 2200 and this permits them to be 4 1-2 by 5 feet apart. If they are placed any closer the growth is likely to be stunted.

According to the laws of this state the weight of a bushel of tomatoes is 56 pounds and it takes 36 bushels to make a ton. This means that at $8.50 a ton the price is 24c a bushel. As already stated, the average cost of production is $5 a ton, which means 14 cents a bushel. Various other facts about tomatoes and the methods of culture are given in the bulletins quoted. One fortunate fact is that specialists are not required and any man who has a common understanding of cultivating the ground can take care of tomatoes. The same thing is true with the planting, and so the problem of securing the right kind of labor is not nearly so difficult with tomatoes as with some vegetables and many fruits.

"I Want to Sleep in Comfort"

SAID a man who came into this store the other day: "I want a bed that won't rattle and that is good looking, or my wife won't have it in the house—a bed that is moderate in price, because I can't afford the expensive kind. What can you show?"

We took him to our display of the new Simmons Steel Beds which have just arrived. We showed him how the foot and head rods are electrically welded—thus doing away with nuts and bolts, which are sure at some time to come loose and rattle.

We explained that these beds are made of tempered steel tubing—so that they are one-third lighter than the old style iron beds. This means unmarred floors and a saving of rugs.

We told him just how the enamel was applied to the steel—four coats, baked separately—so that the bed was good for a lifetime of hard service.

And we explained how his wife might choose any color she liked, or one of the smart-looking wood finishes now in vogue. Also, we mentioned the frictionless casters which insure great ease in moving.

Tonight that man is sleeping in comfort in a Simmons Bed. His wife says it is the best looking bed she has ever had in her home.

That is our idea of service to our patrons. May we not serve you?
